NKRF, an AS9100D company, is a full stack cable assembly manufacturer across RF, copper & fibre optics. With a stronghold in RF as India's only CEMILAC qualified manufacturer, we have ~10 years of space heritage as well on ESA-compliant satellites, and are deployed across a variety of military platforms, across fighter aircraft, missiles, helicopters, naval systems, radars, and TVAC chambers. We also offer bespoke design and customization of RF connectors & adaptors upto 40Ghz. NKRF excels in phase-matched, low-loss cable assemblies even +/-2 degrees and support major Indian defence and space programs with unmatched reliability and on-time excellence.
